Dear Mr. Miller,

After having an opportunity to review your letter and the accompanying materials, I have come to the conclusion that our firm will be unable to represent you in connection with the matters you described. This decision in no way represents an opinion on our part regarding the legal merits of your case. Therefore, you may desire to seek such an opinion from other counsel.

We thank you for considering our firm and wish you the best success however you may decide to pursue this matter.

Sincerely,

Joseph E. diGenova
